REFUNDS AND SESSION CHANGES

I understand that MaineWekeelaCo, LLC, has camp policies regarding behavior and decorum and that these policies include, but are not limited to, a policy that forbids the possession or use by campers of instrumentalities considered dangerous or hazardous by the camp, in its sole discretion, pornographic materials, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages or drugs of any kind (except for drugs prescribed for a camper's personal use by a licensed practitioner), and a policy that forbids possession or use of weapons of any kind. I agree that, if the Directors of MaineWekeelaCo, LLC, in their sole discretion, and for any reason whatsoever, determine to expel a child from camp, whether or not the Directors have decided that there has been an infraction of any of these policies concerning either my child's behavior or my child's possession or use of any forbidden items or weapons, my child may be asked to leave Camp Wekeela and forfeit the fees for the balance of the season for which he has been enrolled. I agree that, if such expulsion occurs, I will be entitled to no refund or reduction of fees. I agree that, if I do not pay the fees as spelled out in this agreement, and according to the terms hereof, and it becomes necessary for Camp Wekeela to seek collection, I will be responsible for the payment of any additional costs for collection, including such reasonable legal fees and court costs as might be incurred. I also agree that, if MaineWekeelaCo, LLC, files any action against me arising out of this agreement, and if service of suit papers is made on me as hereafter provided, the courts of basic jurisdiction of Oxford County, Maine shall have personal jurisdiction over me, and Oxford County, Maine shall be a place or proper venue of any such action.

If I am served with legal papers by certified mail, return receipt requested, or if such service is attempted and refused, and legal papers are then sent to me through the ordinary United States mail, that will constitute valid personal service upon me so as to confer personal jurisdiction over me.

If you withdraw your child prior to Feb 1st, you will receive a full refund less a $500 administrative fee. There are no refunds after February 1st. Due to fixed costs and expenditures based on definite enrollment and date, no refunds or reductions can be made for campers arriving at camp late or departing early.
